Since opening, Winstead's Fort Worth office has maintained a consistent number of attorneys, but in 2011 Winstead more than doubled the size of the Fort Worth Office from six attorneys to 15. This growth was the result of a targeted strategy to hire attorneys with experience in several key areas that are both strengths of Winstead and the Fort Worth business community: financial services, real estate and energy. Winstead's Fort Worth office has grown from a combination of lateral hiring and repositioning current attorneys with strong connections to the city. PROFESSIONAL MISSION: We are more than just your attorneys – our knowledge of your business and industry makes us an extension of your core business team. We are practical, roll-up-our-sleeves lawyers committed to using our broad legal experience to relentlessly pursue innovative solutions on your terms. FREE ADVICE: Investing in sound legal advice at
