

Core Values

Winstead Commitment to Clients

We are more than just your attorneys—our knowledge of your business and industry makes us an extension of your core business team. We are practical, roll-up-our-sleeves lawyers committed to using our broad legal experience to relentlessly pursue innovative solutions on your terms. Our core values include:

Teamwork

We accomplish more together than we could alone, knowing that inclusiveness is essential to teamwork, and we are willing to give more than we receive.

Excellence

We expect and accept only the best.

Personal Growth

We challenge ourselves and will continually examine and raise our expectations.

Respect

We respect our clients, our adversaries and the law. We support and take pride in our firm and each other.

Integrity

We are fair and honest in all we do. The truth is absolute—regardless of consequences.

Dependability

We take responsibility, act professionally and will meet or exceed expectations.

Intensity

We are committed to and relentlessly pursue all we undertake.

Service

We serve our clients, our firm, each other, our profession and our community.

Commitment

We are loyal to our clients and each other, and provide long-term opportunity and stability.
