

Overview

“Destination: Wherever you need to go” represents Winstead’s attitude, as well as the vastness of our experience and technical resources that clients rely on. Clients in virtually all industries bring their challenges to Winstead and they keep coming back deal after deal, case after case, year after year as their organizations grow and change.

Entrepreneurs love us, because we are fast, nimble and competitively priced. Corporate counsel depend on us because we have the sophistication, resourcefulness and deep know-how they need. From practice to practice, Winstead attorneys deliver a consistent client experience—the most responsive attorneys you’ll hire, attorneys who know how to get things done, and business-friendly rates and fee arrangements that are aligned with the goals of the engagement.

In Texas, coast to coast and around the globe, Winstead is with you.