

A Party Should Seek Attorney's Fees in Proceeding Where They Are Incurred

10.04.15

In Lesikar v. Moon, a trustee personally paid $750,000 in attorney's fees for a trust in the course of litigation. No. 01-12-00406-CV, 2014 Tex. App. LEXIS 10041 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] September 4, 2014, no pet.). After that suit was resolved, the trustee filed a second suit to obtain reimbursement. The court of appeals held... Continue Reading
