

Functional Features in Design Patents

04.26.16

The treatment of functional features in design patents was discussed in the recent Federal Circuit case for Sport Dimension, Inc. v. The Coleman Company, Inc., Case No. 15-1553 (Fed. Cir. 2016). The Court rejected the district court's claim construction, which completely removed functional features. As noted by the Court, "[a] design patent cannot claim a... Continue Reading
