

Major Record Labels file Copyright Suit Against YouTube-MP3.org

11.02.16

YouTube is a well-known video sharing website that allows users to view, upload, share, rate, and comment on videos. Generally, the user streaming the video from YouTube cannot download, copy, or save the video. Stream ripping allows users to save streamed media from websites, such as YouTube. YouTube-MP3.org provides an online stream ripping service that... Continue Reading
