

Court Affirmed Jury's Findings Of Breach Of Fiduciary Duty By Joint Venture Partner And The Partner's Representative

12.06.16

In CBIF v. TGI Friday's, a joint venture partner sued the other partner for breaching fiduciary duties for unreasonably withholding consent regarding amending a lease and by acting out of its own self-interest in threatening the venture and its constituents with the total loss of the venture's business existence if it was not paid millions... Continue Reading