

Court Affirms Submission of Mitigation Instruction In A Breach Of Fiduciary Duty Case To Affirm A Jury's Finding Of No Damages

08.10.17

In E.L. & Associates v. Pabon, a company sued two former directors and their son for breaching fiduciary duties when the company lost a lease for a restaurant it operated and the directors' son opened a nearly identical restaurant in the same location. No. 14-15-00631-CV, 2017 Tex. App. LEXIS 4547 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] May..... Continue Reading