

Court Held That Equitable-Forfeiture Claims Arising From A General Partner's Compensation Should Be Remanded For Consideration By Court

09.30.18

In Cruz v. Ghani, a limited partner sued a general partner over breach of fiduciary duty claims arising from, among other allegations, that the general partner should not have compensated himself from the business in addition to regular distributions. No. 05-17-00566-CV, 2018 Tex. App. LEXIS 6557 (Tex. App.—Dallas August 20, 2018, no pet. history).

The..... Continue Reading