

Court Affirms Contempt Order Based On A Beneficiary's Refusal To Produce Trust Documents, Holding That The Beneficiary Had A Right To Obtain And Produce Those Documents

10.17.19

In In re Topletz, the trial court ordered a party jailed for civil contempt for failing to comply with an order to produce documents from a family-run trust during post-judgment discovery in a suit against him individually where the party contended the documents were not within his possession, custody, or control. No. 05-19-00327-CV, 2019 Tex.... Continue Reading