

Contractual Jury Waivers in Trust and Estate Litigation in Texas

11.04.19

I. Introduction Individuals execute trusts and wills to determine how certain assets are to be managed and distributed. Those same individuals may want to have some control over the dispute resolution process for any conflicts that arise in the future. Specifically, an individual may want to keep disputes in the court system, but want to... Continue Reading