

There's No Such Thing as a Free Lunch

11.17.20

There's no such thing as a free lunch.... This adage is over 50 years old, and the Office of Inspector General for Health & Human Services (OIG) wants to remind doctors that it remains true. The pharmaceutical and medical device industry continues to woo doctors with invitations to educational speaker programs in high-end restaurants, with... Continue Reading...