

Healthcare M&A in a Post-PPP World: Time to Look that Gift Horse in the Mouth

11.24.20

In the wake of the initial months of the COVID-19 pandemic, many practitioners have started to see a notable uptick in healthcare M&A activity through the third quarter of 2020. Such activity spans from consolidation transactions in certain medical practice segments, accretive acquisitions in the hospice and home health space, business combinations to expand telemedicine... Continue Reading...