

Winstead University: Ethical Concerns of Conducting Research via the Open Web

Presented by David Dilenschneider, Esq., Senior Director of Client Relations for LexisNexis

04.19.17

According to the ABA's 2015 Legal Technology Survey Report, well over 90% of researchers use "free online resources" for their research and many of those practitioners actually start their research with such resources, most often via Google™. But what are the risks? And does reliance on such resources place practitioners at risk of violating ethical canons? Worse yet, is malpractice implicated?

LexisNexis is pleased to offer a fast-paced and revealing presentation addressing the ethical concerns of conducting research via the Open Web.
