

Virtual Book Discussion with Brittany Barnett, Former Winstead Attorney, Author and Entrepreneur, and Tanya Eiserer, Investigative Reporter at WFAA-TV

12.09.20

Join your friends at Winstead for an exclusive virtual book discussion with former Winstead attorney, entrepreneur and author Brittany Barnett. WFAA-TV investigative reporter Tanya Eiserer will interview Brittany about her new book, A Knock at Midnight: A Story of Hope, Justice and Freedom.

Named the #1 Book of 2020 by Amazon Editors, A Knock at Midnight is described as: “An inspiring true story about unwavering belief in humanity and an urgent call to free those buried alive by America's unjust legal system—from a gifted young lawyer whose journey marks the emergence of a powerful new voice in the movement to transform the system.”

Wednesday, December 9, 2020

5:15 p.m. - 6:30 p.m.

The virtual event link will be provided with your confirmation e-mail.

Article I. REGISTER HERE

Brittany K. Barnett is an award-winning attorney and entrepreneur focused on social impact investing. She is dedicated to transforming the criminal justice system and has won freedom for numerous clients serving life sentences for federal drug offenses—seven of whom received executive clemency from President Barack Obama. Brittany is a former Winstead attorney who left private practice to establish several social enterprises, including XVI Capital Partners, Milena Reign LLC, the Buried Alive Project, and Girls Embracing Mothers.

Tanya Eiserer is a reporter at WFAA in Texas, specializing in investigative journalism. A five-time Emmy-award winner, Tanya is widely recognized for her coverage reporting on the Dallas police officer, Amber Guyger, who shot Botham Jean in his own home because she thought it was hers.

To help increase awareness of and support for Girls Embracing Mothers and the Buried Alive Project, Winstead is making a donation in honor of our clients and friends who attend this virtual event.