

Winstead's Fort Worth Office Moves to New Location

08.29.14

Fort Worth, TX, Aug. 29, 2014 — Law firm Winstead PC announced its move to 300 Throckmorton Street. The firm will be located on the 17th floor of One City Place in downtown Fort Worth: <http://www.cityplacefortworth.com/>. Winstead's office was previously located at 777 Main Street in Fort Worth.

Winstead provides a wide variety of legal services that have evolved over the years as the office has grown. The office currently has 13 attorneys representing clients in corporate law, financial services, energy, real estate, trust and estate litigation, estate planning and probate law, business litigation, and appellate law. The office is led by managing shareholder David F. Johnson. Johnson points out that the Fort Worth employees are excited about the firm's new location and that the Fort Worth office continues to be an important part of what makes Winstead a successful law firm in Texas and beyond.

The firm hosts various client events, including an annual Financial Services Seminar that is sponsored by the Tarrant County Bankers Association, a Fall Client Event, and a Skybox at the Colonial Golf Tournament.

Winstead PC is among the largest business law firms in Texas. Winstead attorneys and consultants serve as trusted advisors to mid-market and large businesses, providing a core range of legal services that are critical to their operation and success. Winstead currently has offices in Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio, and The Woodlands, Texas; Charlotte, North Carolina; New Orleans, Louisiana, and Washington, D.C.
