

Marcus Brown Elected as Chair of the Board for Mental Health America

01.26.15

Congratulations to Winstead shareholder Marcus Brown who has been elected chair of the board of directors for Mental Health America of Greater Dallas ("MHA").

MHA is a non-profit organization working to promote mental wellness through community education and improve services for emotionally disturbed children, adolescents and adults with serious mental illness. As a facilitator and coordinator for local mental health service providers, MHA pursues a vigorous course of strategic long-range planning along with spontaneous responses to community crises as they arise. MHA offers information on community resources, education and advocacy on mental illnesses and mental health issues. MHA also provides preventive programs that are designed to supply high-risk populations, such as children, the homeless, and the indigent, with information and skills to deal with dysfunction, distress, and adverse situations.
