

Winstead's Andrew Rosell Appointed to the Cook Children's Health Foundation Board of Trustees

08.21.15

Winstead shareholder Andrew Rosell was appointed to the Cook Children's Health Foundation board of trustees. The W. I. Cook Foundation matches the needs of the health care system with generous philanthropic support from the community to enhance patient programs and services. Click here to learn more.

Rosell's practice focuses on representing private investment managers and sponsors of private investment funds, including hedge fund managers, private equity fund managers, real estate fund managers, traditional wealth managers and family offices. He is a member of Winstead's Corporate Practice Group and received his J.D. from Southern Methodist University Dedman School of Law.