DALLAS, July 10, 2019, — Chambers and Partners has acknowledged Winstead shareholders John F. Bergner and Stephanie Loomis-Price in the 2019 Chambers HNW Guide. The Chambers HNW Guide is a publication specifically aimed at the international private wealth market. The guide covers private wealth management work and related specialisms in key jurisdictions around the world, featuring in-depth editorial about the leading lawyers and law firms for wealthy individuals and families.

John F. Bergner is a shareholder and chairs the Wealth Preservation Practice Group in the firm's Dallas, Texas, office. His practice involves complex tax, estate and business succession planning, as well as administration of estates. He is a specialist in estate planning and probate law certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

Stephanie Loomis-Price is a shareholder with the Wealth Preservation Practice Group in the firm's Houston, Texas, office. She handles federal gift and estate tax litigation against the Internal Revenue Service across the nation, as well as state fiduciary and probate controversy work. She handles matters in Federal and State Tax Courts, as well as County Probate Courts in Texas. She also counsels clients regarding complex estate administration and minimizing litigation and audit risks.

This marks Bergner's and Loomis-Price's fourth consecutive year of acknowledgment in Chambers HNW. Winstead's Wealth Preservation Practice Group is also ranked in Band 2 for Private Wealth Law in Texas.

Chambers HNW is published by Chambers and Partners, a premier guide to the legal profession. Each year, Chambers conducts in-depth research and interviews with clients and attorneys throughout the United States to identify the top attorneys in various practice areas. Inclusion in Chambers HNW is based completely on the research and peer interviews conducted and cannot be initiated by a firm or attorney.
