

Andrew Rosell Listed Among Most Influential Leaders in Fort Worth, Texas

07.01.20

Winstead PC is proud to announce that Fort Worth Inc. has recognized Shareholder Andrew Rosell as one of the top 400 most influential people in Fort Worth, Texas. This is the second year Rosell has been included on the list.

The “Fort Worth 400” list recognizes people in Tarrant County who wield significant influence in industry, philanthropy, nonprofits, government and public policy, economic development, professional services, education, civic affairs, arts, religion, sports, and media, or within their own spheres.

Rosell is chair of Winstead’s Investment Management & Private Funds Industry Group and a member of the Corporate, Securities/Mergers & Acquisitions Practice Group. He has a diverse corporate and securities practice representing private investment fund managers, wealth managers, mutual fund managers, family offices and public and private companies engaged in strategic transactions. Rosell primarily focuses on representing registered investment advisers in all aspects of their business, including: formation and structuring, regulatory compliance, strategic transactions (e.g. seed deals and growth acceleration transactions), strategic mergers and acquisitions, investment portfolio transactions, due diligence, fund formation and liquidation and business cessation.

About Winstead

Winstead is a national business law firm with more than 300 attorneys who serve as trusted advisors to emerging, mid-market and large companies, both public and private. The Winstead team provides a range of core legal services that are critical to our clients achieving their business goals. Winstead’s business transactions and litigation practices serve key industries including aviation, financial services, healthcare, investment management/private equity, life sciences, real estate and sports business.