

Winstead's Zachary Allie to serve as President of the Houston Young Lawyers Association

05.31.13

Dallas, May 31, 2013 —Winstead associate Zachary Allie will serve as President of the Houston Young Lawyers Association (HYLA). HYLA is an association of attorneys in the Houston region who are 36 years of age and under, as well as attorneys over 36 with fewer than 5 years of practice. HYLA averages around 1000 members, and provides service, networking, and recreational activities to its members and the Houston community. Zachary was elected president-elect last year.

Zachary is an associate in Winstead's Labor, Employment & Immigration practice group. He has a broad amount of experience and success with representing clients in a wide array of commercial disputes. Zachary has substantial experience with contract and employment disputes as well as other general litigation matters. He is also a director for the Houston Volunteer Lawyers. Zachary received his J.D. from the South Texas College of Law.

Winstead PC is among the largest business law firms in Texas. Winstead attorneys and consultants serve as trusted advisors to mid-market and large businesses, providing a core range of legal services that are critical to their operation and success. Winstead currently has offices in Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio, and The Woodlands, Texas; Charlotte, North Carolina; New Orleans, Louisiana and Washington, D.C. For detailed information about Winstead, visit www.winstead.com.

MEDIA CONTACT:
Shannon Tipton, 214/745-5308
stipton@winstead.com