

Cheryl Camin Murray Accepted to 2014 Leadership Dallas Class

08.01.13

Dallas, Aug. 1, 2013 — Law firm Winstead PC is proud to announce that Cheryl Camin Murray has been accepted to the Dallas Regional Chamber 2014 Leadership Dallas Class. Camin Murray is a shareholder in Winstead's healthcare industry group, and the corporate, securities/mergers & acquisitions practice group.

Founded in 1975, Leadership Dallas is the Dallas Regional Chamber's leadership development program aimed at providing the Dallas region with an ongoing source of diverse leaders who are prepared and committed to serve as catalysts and sustainers of positive change for the Dallas region. The program draws the best and the brightest that Dallas has to offer and hones their ability to take risks, build confidence, and set the right example -- all essential qualities of a strong leader. The ten-month program consists of a two-day retreat, nine monthly day-long sessions, monthly assignments, and a class project. Leadership Dallas Alums include top executives, entrepreneurs, police chiefs, U.S. Ambassadors, U.S. Attorneys, and elected officials at city, state and national levels.

Camin Murray's experience includes counseling clients on fraud and abuse, illegal remuneration, HIPAA, the HITECH Act, and Stark Law matters, as well as compliance with other federal and state health laws. She speaks and trains clients on technology, privacy and security, and HIPAA compliance. Her practice focuses on healthcare matters, advising providers, financial institutions and businesses on entity formation and structural, contractual and regulatory healthcare issues.

Notable positions that Camin Murray holds or held include director and chair of the Governance Committee of the Southwest Transplant Alliance, director of the National Kidney Foundation serving Texas and Kidney Walk chair, Southwest Healthcare Transactions Conference steering committee member, vice-president and director of the Texas Young Lawyers Association, founding fellow of the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers, and co-founder and former co-chair of the Dallas Bar Association's Public Forum Committee. She has previously served on the Dallas City Council Environmental Health Commission.
