Winstead PC Of Counsel Frank O. Carroll, who recently joined the firm's Real Estate Industry Group, was featured in Texas Lawyer's Newsmakers column for the week of March 8, 2021. An excerpt is below:

"Civil Trial Attorney Joins Houston Firm's Real Estate Litigation Practice

Winstead PC announced that Frank O. Carroll III has joined the firm's business litigation practice group in the firm's Houston office, handling litigation matters for the firm's real estate clients.

Carroll is board-certified in civil trial law by the National Board of Trial Advocacy. He represents individuals and corporations in complex real estate disputes. He has tried nearly two dozen cases to verdict as lead counsel, obtaining substantial verdicts representing both plaintiffs and defendants, and has prosecuted more than 100 appeals ranging from oil and gas contract interpretation to defining the bounds of emerging technologies. Carroll has presented oral arguments in numerous courts of appeal, including the Texas Supreme Court. At his previous firm, Carroll was the head of the appellate practice group.

'I was attracted to Winstead because I wanted to work with the most respected thought leaders in the real estate industry,' Carroll said, in a statement by the firm. 'And, I wanted to join a team that could provide for all of my clients' needs, from acquisition through every stage of development and management. Winstead has the resources and capabilities to do that.'
