"Urban Land Institute hails 3 projects"

By Katherine Feser

The Houston Chronicle ran an article covering award winners of the 2012 Development of Distinction Awards. These awards, held in Houston and sponsored by the Houston District Council of the Urban Land Institute, honored three projects earlier this month. One of the winners, Houston's CityCentre development by Midway Cos., was a winner in the For-Profit Category. The project combines residential, hospitality, retail and restaurants in a pedestrian-friendly environment. Shareholder and co-chair of Winstead's real estate development and investments practice group Greg Erwin is an officer of the Urban Land Institute in Houston and comments in the article on the CityCentre project. Winstead was a presenting sponsor at the awards event.
