

Winstead's Roland Love receives Crystal Hope Award

04.29.13

Dallas, Apr. 29, 2013 — Winstead shareholder Roland Love is this year's recipient of the Crystal Hope Award, recognizing the legal work he has donated to the AIDS Interfaith Network (AIN) for the past six years. AIN has worked within the Dallas community for the past 26 years, serving those living with HIV/AIDS and helping with prevention in vulnerable populations. Love received his award on April 20th at AIN's annual Bloomin' Ball at the Hilton Anatole. The Crystal Hope Awards recognize three groups (a business, a faith community, and an individual) that make significant contributions in HIV prevention. The Crystal Hope Award is AIN's highest honor.

Love is a shareholder in Winstead's real estate litigation, appellate, intellectual property, and tort and insurance litigation practice groups. He is a past member of Winstead's board of directors, admitted to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office, and is Board Certified in Commercial, Farm and Ranch, and Residential Real Estate Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

Winstead PC is among the largest business law firms in Texas.
