

Winstead's Bob Burton Accepted to ACREL

04.29.13

Austin, Apr. 29, 2013 — Winstead shareholder Bob Burton has been accepted to the American College of Real Estate Lawyers (ACREL). The prestigious ACREL group is by invitation only and selects its members based on outstanding legal ability, a minimum of ten years of experience, and high standards of professional ethics in the practice of real estate law.

Burton is a shareholder in Winstead's real estate development and investments practice group, and co-chair of the planned community, mixed-use and condominium practice group. His practice focuses on real estate, with an emphasis on the planning, development, risk management, administration and marketing of single-family, townhome, condominium, commercial, and mixed-use projects, as well as timeshares and resorts.

Winstead PC is among the largest business law firms in Texas. Winstead attorneys and consultants serve as trusted advisors to mid-market and large businesses, providing a core range of legal services that are critical to their operation and success. Winstead currently has offices in Austin, Dallas, Fort Worth, Houston, San Antonio, and The Woodlands, Texas; Charlotte, North Carolina; New Orleans, Louisiana and Washington, D.C.
