

Brad Geier

Shareholder

Practices: Finance & Banking; Real Estate; Energy Lending; Syndicated Finance

Industries: Real Estate; Financial Services

Brad Geier's practice focuses on representing agents and lenders in complex financing transactions. Prior to joining Winstead, Brad's practice included the representation of oil and gas companies engaged in exploration and production activities.

Representative Experience

- Representation of agents and lenders in syndicated and unsyndicated credit facilities secured by producing oil and gas properties located in the continental United States and the Gulf of Mexico
- Representation of agents and lenders in connection with secured and unsecured credit facilities in various industries, including oil and gas, pipelines, refining, real estate and manufacturing
- Experience in debtor-in-possession financings and loan workouts and restructures
- Representation of energy companies in connection with the preparation of title opinions and the negotiation of joint operating agreements, joint exploration agreements, participation agreements, purchase and sale agreements and various other industry agreements and contractual relationships
- Representation of mineral owners in the negotiation of oil and gas leases

Professional & Community Service

- State Bar of Texas (Oil, Gas & Energy Resources Law Section)

Admissions

- Texas, 2004

Dallas Office

214.745.5819 Direct

214.745.5390 Fax

bgeier@winstead.com

Education

University of Iowa College of Law

– J.D., 2004

– high distinction

– Order of the Coif

– Managing Editor, Journal of Corporation Law

Flagler College

– B.A., Accounting, 2001

– summa cum laude