

Jeanne Katz

Shareholder Co-Chair, Planned Community, Mixed-Use & Condominium Practice Group

Practices: Real Estate Development & Investments; Planned Community, Mixed-Use & Condominium; Real Estate

Industries: Real Estate; Universities

Jeanne Katz is a shareholder in Winstead's Real Estate Development & Investments Practice Group.

Representative Experience

- Condominium Transactions: Representation of condominium developers in the development of residential and mixed-use condominium projects and the conversion of existing multifamily housing into residential condominiums; Representation of property owner and condominium associations in governance and administrative matters
- Development: Representation of property developers in the structuring and documentation of mixed use projects and the acquisition, disposition and development of improved and unimproved property
- Finance: Representation of institutional lenders in connection with debt and equity financing, including construction, acquisition and refinancing loans

Professional & Community Service

- State Bar of Texas
- Dallas Bar Association, Real Property Section (Board of Directors; Chair)
- CREW
- Urban Land Institute, North Texas Chapter
- American College of Real Estate Lawyers

Awards & Recognition

- The Best Lawyers in America, Woodward/White Inc., 2016-2020
- Best Lawyers in Dallas, D Magazine, 2019

Admissions

- Texas, 2004

Dallas Office

214.745.5143 Direct

214.745.5390 Fax

jkatz@winstead.com

Education

Southern Methodist University, Dedman School of Law

- J.D., 2004
- cum laude
- Order of the Coif
- 2003-2004 Texas Survey Editor
- SMU Law Review Association
- Phi Delta Phi Honor Society
- Dean's List

University of Texas at Austin

- B.A., 2001
- cum laude
- McCombs School of Business, Business Foundations Certificate with High Distinction