Shareholder

Practices: Finance & Lending

Industries: Financial Services

As a member of Winstead's Finance & Lending Practice Group, Kadie represents regional banks, national banks, and other financial services institutions in connection with the planning, negotiation, and documentation of financing transactions. Kadie advises lenders on various types of commercial loans, including acquisition financings, secured and unsecured financings, single lender and syndicate lending, participations, debt workouts and restructures, complex intercreditor and subordination arrangements, and middle market and asset-based financings.

Kadie has extensive experience representing both borrowers and lenders in subscription line financings and insurance premium financings. She also has experience working specifically in the sports industry, representing professional teams in their general financing projects. Kadie enjoys giving presentations to those in the legal and finance industries on these topics as well as the ins and outs of loan, intercreditor, and forbearance agreements.

Outside of her practice, Kadie serves in civic and professional organizations and contributes to various programs throughout the community and the bar, including pro bono representation of the OMSLife Foundation.
