

Lacey Stevenson

Associate

Practices: Wealth Preservation

Lacey Stevenson is a member of Winstead's Wealth Preservation Practice Group. Lacey has extensive experience as a tax attorney with particular emphasis on matters involving fiduciaries, trusts, and high net worth individuals and their families.

Representative Experience

- Design and prepare primary estate planning documents, such as revocable trusts, wills, and financial and medical powers of attorney
- Advise and assist executors, trustees, and beneficiaries with the funding, administration, taxation, and distribution of trusts and estates
- Design, implement, and monitor transfer tax minimization strategies, such as gifts to family trusts, installment sales to grantor trusts, and grantor retained annuity trusts (GRATs)
- Assist families with the formation of closely-held businesses to own and manage family assets
- Prepare and review federal gift tax returns (IRS Forms 709) and federal estate tax returns (IRS Forms 706)
- Assist trustees with judicial and non-judicial modifications / reformations to irrevocable trusts
- Assist clients with the formation of tax-exempt organizations

Professional & Community Service

- State Bar of Texas
- Oklahoma Bar Association

Awards & Recognition

- Texas Rising Stars, Thomson Reuters, 2022-2023

Admissions

- Texas, 2020
- Oklahoma, 2016

Dallas Office

214.745.5183 Direct

214.745.5390 Fax

l Stevenson@winstead.com

Education

New York University School of Law

- LL.M., Taxation, 2019
- Senior Staff Editor, NYU Tax Law Review

Baylor Law School

- J.D., 2016
- magna cum laude
- Articles Editor, Baylor Law Review
- Baylor Law's Dean's Academic Excellence Full-Tuition Scholarship

University of Oklahoma

- B.A., Political Science, 2012
- Phi Beta Kappa