

Leila Lucevic

Shareholder

Practices: Real Estate Finance, Default Resolution & Servicing

Industries: Financial Services; Real Estate

Leila's practice involves a variety of commercial real estate transactions with a focus on real estate finance. She has experience representing institutional lenders with loan originations and servicing work. Prior to her law career, Leila spent many years working with international non-profit organizations managing programs and raising funds.

Representative Experience

- Representation of national institutional lenders with respect to permanent loan originations in all categories of real estate, including retail, industrial and multifamily
- Representation of national and regional institutional lenders with respect to origination and acquisition of loans secured by hotel, multifamily, retail, office and industrial developments
- Representation of national and regional lenders with respect to servicing matters such as consents, modifications and partial releases

Prior New York Practice

Prior to joining Winstead, Leila practiced law in New York from 2013 to 2018.

Professional & Community Service

- State Bar of Texas
- Founder and Board of Directors, Bosnian-Herzegovinian Film Festival in New York, since 2001

Awards & Recognition

- Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch, (BL Rankings, LLC), 2021-2024

Admissions

- New York
- Texas

Dallas Office

214.745.5219 Direct

214.745.5390 Fax

llucevic@winstead.com

Education

Brooklyn Law School

– J.D.

Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs, Syracuse University

– M.A., International Relations

– Contributing Editor, Journal of Public and International Affairs

Wesleyan University

– B.A., History

Languages

Croatian

Bosnian

Serbian

German

French