

Madelyn Chortek Eisenberg

Shareholder

Practices: Finance & Lending

Industries: Financial Services

Madelyn Chortek Eisenberg advises clients in commercial lending and financial transactions, including syndicated financings, middle market and asset-based financings, reserve-based financings, acquisition financings, and intercreditor and subordination arrangements. Her experience representing lenders, agents, and borrowers in commercial lending and workout transactions enables her to provide a broad perspective to clients in developing creative and efficient solutions. Madelyn also has substantial experience in the areas of energy and sports financing.

Representative Experience

- Represents and advises clients in connection with documentation, negotiation, and administration of a broad range of secured and unsecured commercial finance transactions including:
 - Representation of administrative agent in a $1.8 billion syndicated credit facility secured by producing oil and gas properties in 10 different states
 - Representation of various sports teams and affiliates in connection with revolving credit and term loans, league-wide credit facilities, and stadium financings
 - Representation of administrative agent in credit facility to finance acquisition of over 81 convenience stores
- Represents and advises borrowers and lenders in loan workouts and restructurings

Professional & Community Service

- State Bar of Texas
- Dallas Bar Association
- Dallas Association of Young Lawyers

Awards & Recognition

- Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch, (BL Rankings, LLC), 2024

Admissions

- Texas, 2013

Dallas Office

214.745.5645 Direct

214.745.5390 Fax

meisenberg@winstead.com

Education

University of Texas School of Law

- J.D., 2013
- with honors
- Symposium Editor, The Review of Litigation
- Dean's Achievement Award for Highest Grade in Bankruptcy
- Dean's Achievement Award for Highest Grade in Business Associations

Tufts University

- B.A., Psychology and Economics, 2009