

Vincent Marino

Shareholder

Practices: Real Estate Development & Investments; Real Estate

Industries: Real Estate

Vincent is a shareholder in Winstead's Real Estate Development & Investments practice. He has practiced real estate and corporate law for more than 37 years. He is both an attorney and a CPA and has experience in various areas of law and a broad spectrum of transactions. Vincent represents borrowers in real estate projects, developers, landlords, tenants, buyers and sellers of raw land (e.g., ranches and other acreage parcels) and improved property (e.g., shopping centers, office buildings, apartments and industrial properties), lessors of oil and gas and other minerals, and partners in partnerships. His experience also includes representing lenders in real estate projects, and several foreign clients in U.S. real estate and other investments through both foreign and domestic entities.

Houston Office

713.650.2799 Direct

713.650.2400 Fax

vmarino@winstead.com

Education

University of Houston Law Center

– J.D., 1968

– with honors

University of Houston

– B.A., 1966

– with honors

Unique Lawyer Experience

- Vincent has been involved in several tax-free exchanges, including deferred exchanges, reverse safe harbor exchanges and reverse non-safe harbor exchanges

Representative Experience

- Commercial Real Estate Law
- Business/Corporation Law
- Taxation
- Probate
- Investments
- International transactions

Professional & Community Service

- Certified Public Accountant, Texas
- State Bar of Texas
- American Bar Association
- Houston Bar Association
- University of Houston Law Review
- USAF, Reserves, 1968-74
- Volunteer, American Heart Association
- Planning & Zoning Commission, City of Piney Point

Awards & Recognition

- The Best Lawyers in America, Woodward/White Inc., 2005-2020
- Texas Super Lawyers, Thomson Reuters, 2005-2011
- Houston's Top Lawyers, H Texas Magazine, 2005-2006, 2008, 2010

Admissions

- Texas, 1968
- U.S. Tax Court