

Will Tran

Associate

Practices: Finance & Lending

Will Tran is a member of the Finance & Lending Practice Group in the Winstead's Dallas office. Will's practice focuses on all aspects of commercial lending and financial transactions, and he has advised and represented regional, national and international lenders in a broad range of credit transactions that span through various industries, including energy, retail, technology, real estate and sports. His experience includes the representation of commercial lenders and other financial services institutions in secured and unsecured financings, acquisition financings, reserved-based and asset-based lending transactions, syndicated credit facilities, and debt restructuring transactions. Prior to joining Winstead, Will worked as a credit analyst at a national financial institution with middle market companies in the Central Texas regional market.

Will has been recognized for his work in the Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch, 2021-2022.

Representative Experience

- Representation of a banking institution in amending and restating a senior secured reserved-based revolving credit facility with a commitment of $1 billion.
- Representation of an international banking institution in documenting and closing of a $2 billion senior secured reserve-based revolving credit facility to a private oil and gas E&P company.
- Representation of various national sport franchises in connection with their recurring league-wide financing transactions.

Awards & Recognition

- Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch, Woodward/White, Inc., 2021-2022

Admissions

- Texas, 2014

Dallas Office

214.745.5391 Direct

214.745.5390 Fax

wtran@winstead.com

Education

Southern Methodist University, Dedman School of Law

- J.D., 2014
- cum laude
- Staff Editor, SMU Law Review
- A.J. Thomas Award, 2013-2014
- National Order of Barristers

University of Texas at Austin

- B.B.A., Finance and Accounting, 2008