

Finance & Banking

Winstead is a national choice for lenders and borrowers seeking sophisticated financing experience and deep knowledge of major industries. Our facilitative approach encourages a healthy relationship between lender and borrower, and focuses on getting the deal done expediently and professionally.

Representing banks, financial institutions, asset-based lenders, mezzanine and second lien providers, insurance companies, funds, financial sponsors and borrowers, our lending experience includes syndicated, multi-lender and single-lender credit facilities of all types and complexities. Our industry experience includes energy, manufacturing, media and telecommunications, healthcare, real estate, sports, regulatory issues and other industries.

Recognizing that we try to maintain focus on the most significant issues presented in getting a deal closed, our clients often describe us as “deal oriented” and “high impact.” Our experience, responsiveness, practical approach, depth and breadth contribute to a long history of closing transactions in long-lasting client relationships.

Snapshot of Finance and Banking Strengths

- Syndicated lending and capital markets
- Middle-market transactions
- Asset-based lending
- Complex inter-creditor relationships
- Sponsor-backed transactions
- Business banking and private wealth transactions
- Restructurings and workouts
- Regulatory matters
- Energy transactions
- Healthcare
- Media and Telecommunications
- Sports Financings

Next Steps

Attorneys that share your business and financial acumen, and that work with you to protect your business relationships do exist. For finance attorneys that are all about your bottom line, call Winstead.