

Healthcare & Life Sciences Real Estate

There are attorneys who know your business.

There are attorneys who know the law.

And then there's Winstead.

You have questions. The ever-changing regulatory environment; population health; the retailization of healthcare; reimbursement risk; the blurring of lines between payers and providers; ambulatory care strategies; employed physicians; unique functionality and design specifications; and other complex issues are transforming healthcare and healthcare real estate. It is a challenge to keep up with this highly specialized, constantly changing business.

We have answers. The Winstead Healthcare & Life Sciences Real Estate Practice Group understands these complexities and is at the forefront of crafting innovative solutions for healthcare industry clients. We stand at the crossroads of the healthcare industry and the real estate industry and are pioneers in developing and implementing the key real estate trends and strategies being used in today's healthcare business.

We know from experience. Winstead brings a distinctive blend of real estate experience and healthcare industry acumen to each client project. We represent developers, investors, operators and lenders of every type, including private equity funds, public and private healthcare REITs, physician groups, and for-profit, non-profit and public hospitals. Our healthcare projects include all types of facilities along the continuum of care, including medical office buildings, ambulatory surgery centers, specialty hospitals, acute care hospitals, long-term care hospitals, inpatient rehabilitation facilities, post-acute facilities and freestanding emergency departments. We also actively represent developers, investors and lenders in connection with assisted-living facilities, skilled-nursing facilities, continuing care retirement communities and senior living communities. When it comes to healthcare real estate, we've just about done it all.

National Practice

Winstead's Healthcare & Life Sciences Real Estate Practice is national in scope. We have participated in more than $6 billion in transactions covering 38 states.

"The Winstead healthcare real estate lawyers are an experienced team of professionals that are very responsive when working on our projects but also practical in their approach when complex legal issues arise."

- Roman J. Kupchynsky II
Managing Principal, MedProperties Realty Advisors

"We wouldn't do a large transaction without Winstead on our team. Because of their excellence and experience, they provide valuable legal and business counsel at a cost effective net price. We trust the Winstead team and truly value our relationship with them."

- John T. Thomas
President & CEO, Physicians Realty Trust
